

Pap and Pip

Orange
Phase

National
Poetry Day
Special

By Ellie Crawshaw-Prince and illustrated by David Tomkins

These are the new phonic sounds that you will meet in this set of books and the graphemes that represent them.

Remember, some of these graphemes will appear as capital letters, if they are used in names or to start sentences.

There are some words that cannot be fully sounded out and decoded yet.
We call these 'Earth Words'!

Some of these words will start with capital letters if they are used to start sentences.

Pip and Pap,

Pip and map.

Pap and pin,

We hope that you enjoyed this poem!

Can you pick out the words that rhyme with each other?

Can you think of any more words that rhyme?

You can use words from the story, or pick your own!

Can you turn them into a poem?

Do you know any other poems? Could you learn a poem by heart?

You might be able to find and learn a poem that doesn't rhyme!
